Labour Hire Codes

Labour hire codes

You may hire out workers to a number of industries at different times. Every accident insurance policy has a WorkCover Industry Classification \(WIC\) code, which is used to calculate the risk and performance of each industry.

WorkCover has twenty specialised WorkCover Industry Classifications (WICs) for labour hire businesses. When you declare wages for your labour hire workers, you will need to locate the business activities for your clients, to assign it to one of the twenty labour hire WICs.

There's a few steps you need to follow to verify you're the policy and business activity of your client.

1. Click this link to go to our website to verify the WorkCover policy for each client
2. You'll need to have their ABN to type into the ABN search
3. Follow the prompts to check they are covered
4. Their business WIC will appear – take a note of this
5. Use the table below to match their business WIC with the relevant Labour hire code
6. Declare your wages against the appropriate codes.

If you're unable to locate the WIC for your client, or you are unsure of their primary business activity, please contact WorkCover on 1300 927 928.
